

Please Read Before Ordering any of our State of the Art Bath Bomb Presses or Bath Bomb Molds!

Our Bath Bomb Molds are designed to alleviate the stress of making Bath Bombs by Hand and to increase production. We have well over a thousand presses all over the world in operation. Some customers have multiple bath bomb presses and many of these produce hundreds of thousands per year.

There is a learning curve to becoming successful at creating Bath Bombs with our presses.

Before purchasing a Bath Bomb Press from us, you must...

- Be willing to forget everything you know about making bath bombs. Creating bath bombs with a press is a lot different than pressing them by hand.
- Be persistent, persistence in business is primary, never ever quit if you even think you have half a chance of making it.
- Try our recipes (included in your owner's manual)
- Document what you encounter in your production.
- Question everything constantly, to find better ways of doing it.
- Make sure your ingredients are properly taken care of and are fresh.
- Figure it out for yourself if you can...the time spent is worth its weight in gold.
- Make sure you are mixing well.
- View Our How To Videos and Read Your Manual before using your press.

Before purchasing any of our Bath Bomb Molds...

- Make sure the molds you select will work with the Bath Bomb Press you are purchasing or works with the press you own.

We guarantee that our presses and molds are free from defects in material and workmanship, and will work to create Bath Bombs. We cannot guarantee that you can learn to make Bath Bombs with our presses or that your formula will work.

Summary

Making bath bombs with a press is easy and efficient but you need to be willing to read the directions, and work with your formula to get the right consistency. We have some excellent Videos. If you have been making bath bombs by hand, forget what you know. If you are an "Expert" at making bath bombs, do not buy a press as there is no room left to learn.

Now that you have read all of the above, you may not want to purchase, we understand. We are more concerned with having a happy future customer than selling a product. However, if you feel that you, like many others before can successfully operate one of our presses, please order one (or more) of our State of the Art Bath Bomb Presses or Bath Bomb Molds! It's time to join the elite and move your business forward.
